

THE FIRST FATAL ACCIDENT

One of the Best Grand Trunk Engineers Loses His Life While Crossing a Muskeg.

Winnipeg, Aug. 19.—George Macneil, one of the best railway engineers of Western Canada, was killed today on the Grand Trunk Pacific at Fort William, Ont., being the victim of the first operating accident in the history of the new road. He was in charge of an engine which was hauling construction material, and was crossing a muskeg when the road crossed a muskeg, it is said, that the track sank and the engine tumbled on him, killing him instantly. The peculiar circumstances in connection with the fatality was the fact that on this date a year ago he was engineer on a train on the Winnipeg branch line which is running from that summer resort, collided with another excursion train. He and his friend jumped and saved their lives, but Horace Walters, private secretary to Vice President William Whyte, was pinned beneath the engine and tender and killed, the body hanging in that position all night before it was identified. Previous to that time Macneil had the best record of any engineer in the West and few weeks previous to that accident he had made a record run over the new line, and was Sir William Whyte's special for that official, having averaged a mile a minute for the whole distance between Brandon and Winnipeg, including stops.

Political Picnic at Leduc on Friday

Leduc, which had, on the 9th inst. a very successful fair, is to have on the 25th of this month a political picnic, a political picnic, probably the first of its kind in Alberta. The speakers arranged for are Senator Loughheed, of Calgary, Mayor Grisebach, of Edmonton, Mr. J. L. Lavell, barrister, Strathcona, Capt. Thomas of Camrose, and Mr. Oup P. of Leduc. The last named will be in German, the language of a very large and important element in Leduc country.

The picnic will be held in the new park at Leduc, where there is a suitable platform for the speakers, and numbers of shade trees for the picnicers. The plan is for the people to gather in the park in the morning, bringing their baskets with them, then have lunch about noon, and then at about 2 p.m. take dessert in the shape of political oratory. Hot and cold water will be supplied on the grounds.

The trains suit well for visitors from Edmonton and Strathcona, as parties can go to Leduc in the morning and return in the afternoon or evening of the same day. As the 23rd inst. is to be a civic holiday, it is unlikely that a considerable number will take advantage of a day's outing at the Leduc town. The picnic is under the management of the Leduc Cooperative Association, whose officers for the present year are as follows: President, P. J. Muller; Vice-President, Jess Mowbray; Secretary, R. H. Simons; Treasurer, W. G. Lowery.

Chicago Printers May Strike

Chicago, Aug. 19.—A new labor problem has arisen in Chicago. It is entirely distinct from the telegraphers' strike. The city is facing the possibility of finding itself unable to buy any of the leading English newspapers. Negotiations which have been pending since June 1, between the Chicago Newspaper Publishers Association and the Chicago Typographical Union No. 16 in connection with the new wage scale, reached an impasse at a conference of committees of both sides having plenary powers failed to come to an understanding, and the printers served an ultimatum that they would no longer temporize in the matter and that the publishers must take the consequences if concessions were not agreed on speedily. Following the breaking off of negotiations, the executive committee of the Typographical Union called a general meeting for this week at which time the question of a strike will be decided. As the new wage scale prevails in all the printing trades, a strike of printers would take out all of the other mechanical departments. Publishers have asked that the printers accept a reduction in wages and grant the open shop. Publishers offer $21 a week for night work and $19.50 for day work, as against $20 and $18 cents an hour on the present scales, for ad. men. For set type work $40 and 50 cents an hour offered by the publishers, as against $37 and $27 a week.

W. Little, of Winnipeg, was drowned at Winnipeg Beach this morning.

Mrs. Eddy Will Not Appear in Court

Concord, Aug. 19.—That Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy will not need to appear in court has been settled in the famous suit, but she will be examined at her home by a board of famous alienists. As experts in insanity Dr. Henry R. Stuchman, of Brooklyn, Dr. Geo. T. Tuttle of the McLean Hospital at Washington, Dr. Geo. F. Caley, of Boston, and Harry R. Hopkins, of Buffalo, will examine her. The present action is to determine Mrs. Eddy's mental capacity on March 1, 1905. Attorneys for Mrs. Eddy and attorneys for the plaintiff split even by this latest development. The defense feels joyful in keeping the head of the Christian Science Church on the court and their opponents feel that it is securing permission to have an expert board of lunacy examine the famous woman.

Baseball.

NO SCORE IN TEN INNINGS

Edmonton and Calgary played a ten innings game last night without a run being scored on either side. This is a record for the season on the Capital grounds. Several times it looked as though there would be a score, but both pitchers were in immaculate condition and spoiled all the efforts of the batters. Sykes was on the slab for Calgary and Crisp for Edmonton. In the sixth inning Latham, on being called out by the umpire used a little strong language and was ordered off the grounds. A minute later Erickson received the same treatment. Then the umpire was in trouble with the fans, who for a few minutes knew all the names they knew or could invent. A double header is being played today.

CALGARY WHITEWASHED MATTERS

(Special to The Chronicle)
Lethbridge, August 19.—The home team put it all over the new from Medicine Hat tonight, scoring eight to none. Cool, the pitcher, was knocked out of the box in the fourth inning, and Latham took his place, but was almost as bad. Fogarty, the home pitcher, did as he pleased with the visiting batsmen. The latter made only three hits, and only one man reached second. O'Dea made a home run score by innings: 1 0 0 0 0 2 0 2 0 8

Business on Change Not Demoralized

New York, Aug. 19.—The Sun's weekly review of the financial situation today says: "The market has declined this week carried the price of securities down to a lower level than any to which they had declined in recent years, the trading was at no time demoralized and only once, and then for a short time, did the conditions nearly approach demoralization. That there was little liquidation of funds and urgent was everywhere admitted but the market was at all times able to sustain the volume of selling without degenerating into a state of extreme panic and only once during about fifteen minutes on Thursday morning it was necessary for the holder of stocks to offer them down in order to attract bidders except in the case of a few inactive issues like the Allied-Chicago securities and Metropolitan Street Railway, which were affected by special cases. Such an orderly liquidation has rarely been seen and if it has now it is more the situation of the West Street may be stronger than it actually was when it looked much better several weeks ago."

Enormous Loss Caused By Car Strike

Company	Million Dollars Short
Carnegie's wage loss.....	570,000
United Railroads' losses in fares and extra expenses.....	100,000
Total for 30-day strike.....	$1,670,000

The ninety-sixth day of the Carmen's Union strike on the line of the United Railroads Company closed on Friday and the struggle has created heavy financial losses on both sides. It is in view of the $1,670,000 which went out on the strike on the morning of May 18th, has lost fully $750,000. In fares and extra expenditures because of the trouble, the company has lost not less than $1,100,000.

The company today is said to be receiving $10,000 per day in fares, which is about $7,000 less than was the case before the strike and $10,000 less than was the case before the strike. The travel has greatly increased within the past six weeks, but the officials of the street railway combine realize they have practically made no headway in getting laboring people to ride. It is the absence of this travel which represents the $7,000 in daily receipts. However, this is only a short part of the same condition from the standpoint of daily gross fares that it was prior to May 18th.

In 100 per cent monthly operating expenses and taxes of the company amounted to $255,000 and its officials claim that the $200,000 gross now being received in fares per month, by the end of the year, enable them to pay all operating expenses, taxes and interest on bonds for the last seven months. The company would have little effect. Some Jews who escaped from the Bayle camp have come to the present losses.

Police report conditions the company would still be out the $11,100,000 already sustained, all dividends on stock and some money paid for dividends. However, this would amount to it is hard to say.

Enormous Increase in Immigration

Ottawa, Aug. 19.—The latest immigration figures available show a remarkable increase in the influx of settlers. During the twelve months ending June 30th, 1907, over a 14 million immigrants landed in Canada, the exact number being 13,939,381. For the twelve months ending June 30th, 1906 it was 12,084,441, a gain of 1,854,940 or 15 per cent. Visitation ports number was 119,520 as against 131,298 for the previous year, a gain of 64,252 or nearly 49 per cent. From the U. S. the number was 1,000,000 as against 857,780 for the preceding year, a loss of about 2 per cent.

For April, May and June the first quarter of the present fiscal year, the immigration via ocean ports was 105,512 compared with 73,431 last year, an increase of 32,081, about 44 per cent; from the United States it was 21,850 compared with 24,041 during the corresponding period last year, a decrease of 2,191 or 11 per cent.

It will be seen that although immigration from the neighboring country had decreased slightly for the last three months, yet the increase through ocean ports is so great that taking the total figures for April, May and June, viz., 127,371 compared with 97,473, the total figures for the corresponding period last year are still the substantial increase of 29,923, as much as the total annual immigration of six years ago. The increase is nearly 30 per cent.

It may be added that the inspector of agencies who has lately made a visit to the various agencies working in the interests of Canada in the United States, reports a widespread revival of the disposition to move Canada, so that it is probable that the slight increase in immigration for the United States will be more than made up.

VICTIM'S BURIAL TOMORROW

Homesteader Who Was Gored to Death by Mad Bull Will be Buried in Edmonton.

The funeral will take place tomorrow from the undertaking parlors of Moffitt, McQueen & Bell, Edmonton, to the Edmonton cemetery of Ralph J. Lloyd, a homesteader at White Lake. The deceased was a member of the I. O. O. F., and all members of the order are requested to attend at the undertaking parlors at little before 2 o'clock.

The deceased received injuries which resulted in his death while helping a neighbor in an endeavor to drive away from his premises a bull which had strayed away from some Indians in the neighborhood. Six men were attempting to restrain the animal, which was gored by the bull which inflicted a cut six inches long on the side of his neck and badly bruised his head and chest.

Word was also sent to his sister who teaches school at Bruderheim but she was away on her holidays. After long search she was located at Strathcona by the persistent efforts of Sergeant Munroe of the R. N. W. M. P. She reached White Lake on Saturday morning, unfortunately, however, a short time after her brother and her only relative in the West had expired.

Tribesmen's Last Effort

Casablanca, Morocco, Aug. 19.—General Druce, leader of the European forces, says that he considers his position impregnable. Since the Spanish troops have arrived he has 3,500 men at his disposal. It is impossible to undertake an expedition into the interior with less than 25,000 men, and in any case such an expedition would have little effect. Some Jews who escaped from the Bayle camp have come to the present losses. The women prisoners were maltreated and wealthy Moroccan merchants have been held for ransom. Messengers have been sent out to summon all Arabs to assemble and announce a great battle against the French. This is to be the tribesmen's last effort, as they have only five or six cartridges per man left. If they are again badly beaten, is not likely that they will fight again for a long time.

Robert A. Pinkerton Was a Clever Detective

Plymouth, England, Aug. 19.—The death of Robert A. Pinkerton, had of the Pinkerton detective agency of New York, who expired August 12 on the North German Lloyd steamer Bremen, was due to the degeneration of the heart. Mr. Pinkerton was 53 only two days. The body was taken to Germany on board the Bremen and will be brought to New York on the next German Lloyd steamer Wilhelm II, leaving Bremen August 20.

The first case of importance in which Pinkerton won his laurels was the capture and subsequent jailing of the notorious Farrington Brothers, outlaws in 1870. Pinkerton arrested Lou Farrington at Farrington, Ill., on a charge of train robbery. At Union City, Tenn., where he took his prisoner, a recruiting party attacked the detective. A vigilance committee came to his rescue and capture and subsequent jailing of the notorious Farrington Brothers, outlaws in 1870. ## CURRENT COMMENT.

The depredations of the coyotes in this neighborhood have lately become so serious a nature as to demand the attention of the government. From all quarters come reports of losses sustained in sheep and lambs, poultry, pigs and calves, and even dogs, and the farming community has begun to wonder whether or not their work is worth while.

The measures have been driven to the settlements by reason of the extinction of the rabbits which have heretofore been their chief means of existence. Last winter's severity made it necessary for the wolves to seek unusual means of sustaining life, and when spring came they were in so famished a condition that they resorted to the duck eggs laid in nests near the streams, with the result that these birds, the joy of the sportsman and the epitome of an easy and so small that they are hardly worth going after this year; and this district is not the alms of the paradise this year that it has been in the past.

One farmer complains to us that he has had fourteen lambs and sheep killed by the marauders, and to these he has no remedy, but put them on an island in a lake near his house, and the coyotes swam to them three quarters of a mile and killed some of them there.

One farmer only a few miles out, says that he heard his dog bark a few nights ago and before they could reach him, he had been killed by the pack and half eaten.

The remedy the settlers claim is for the government to put a bounty of two dollars a head on the animals. One dollar, the amount heretofore paid, is not enough to pay men to quit their work to follow the chase, and they will follow the chase, and go out on a crusade of extermination.

The pelts are worth about one dollar so that even though the coyote is one of the most wily of brutes, a party with good dogs and guns could make fair wages hunting them.

The government should act in the matter and that right soon. The settlers are entitled to the protection and they are becoming exasperated. Some of them are working in town trying to get a few dollars ahead and when they get out home they find that the coyote has destroyed property far in excess of what they themselves have earned.

The following address of Mr. A. J. Dawson before the Canadian Club in Winnipeg is well worthy the perusal and thoughtful consideration of our readers:

A. J. Dawson, of the London Standard

"I am a writer, not a speaker. I do not come to you as a stranger at all, but as a kinsman, as a fellow citizen, and because Canada leads the world I think in the matter of acting upon and teaching that principle which I make it my business to support—of treating one's own kin a little better than the stranger (Cheer). This is the principle as I see it, which is known in politics by the name of preference. But the Canadian club, very wisely, I am sure, excludes politics from its reunions.

SPIRIT OF YOUNG CANADA

"I come to you, so far as the club is concerned, unprepared. My knowledge of it does not at present go beyond a strong impression that it represents the essential spirit of young Canada (Hear, hear); and that it is not political (Hear, hear); representing the spirit of young Canada sufficiently to arouse the deep and sincere interest of every thinking Englishman today. The knowledge I have is sufficient to make it for me, absolutely and without exception, the most interesting institution of the many fine institutions with which we have come in contact during the last month, owing to the hospitality of what I regard as the greatest single empire building agency there is—the Canadian Pacific Railway. (Cheers).

ENGLAND'S TRADITIONS

"I will tell you why the club seems so great and important an institution. We have at home a population of close on 50,000,000 in a country of about the size of the biggest of your great lakes. We have examples on nearly every kind and shade of political and social thought. We have also thousands of years of insular prejudice and local feeling behind us, some of which is, no doubt, a little hampering.

But, we have a thousand years of traditions that have ever spurred a race towards great and wide dominion. In that country, if a new departure, of any kind, is to be made—whether it be the erection of a drinking fountain, or a policy affecting the lives of millions of British subjects—some previously existing institution has to be abolished, and that means that, to effect $5 worth of change in a country like England, $5,000,000 of vested interests must be affected and millions of people.

CANADA'S ADVANTAGES

"Now, in Canada, a handful of shrewd hard-headed Canadians get together in a town, which the day before yesterday was a remote and unimportant place, and lighting system. Do they start out with tall pipes and work up to electricity? No, very far from it. Their forefathers, on the other side of the Atlantic, have done all that for them. These men know the best thing and get it right away. But I ask you, out of the billions of this country and your own hearts, just to bear in mind the fact that, while all honor is due to them for their wonderful enterprise and rapidity with which they achieve these results, they did not have to abolish any previously existing system to make way for the new electric installation.

To these men every country that needs to achieve anything like the results of the old country, you would find yourself 'up against' a great wall of vested interests. (Laughter).

INFLUENCE OF RACE

"But, gentlemen, whatever the differences and complexity of life at home may be, they are caused not only by the crowded nature of the population, but also by the immense variety of interests that have to be dealt with in different parts of the world. There is, however, one great question of public opinion in England which is developing steadily and surely, and is growing more rapidly than any other section of thought. My view of that section I should like to give you for what it is worth. It is briefly this: I believe that the general weight of influence exerted by citizens of the British Empire all over the world, has been, and is, more general beneficial to the cause of progress than the influence of any other people. I have travelled in most parts of the world, and that is my sincere conviction. Nothing worth accomplishing in the world has ever been accomplished in the absence of the national spirit; and nothing ever will be. Socialism, internationalism, humanitarianism and all the other lams are all very well; but they are all wrong, because they are over-diffused. The first and most direct way we can serve, not only our own race, but humanity at large, is in the service of our people. Firstly, those people immediately around us in whatever branch of the big family to which we belong; secondly, the big family of the empire itself. That is my conviction as to the best way a man may serve humanity—developing and strengthening the tie of fellowship and fraternity, which unites us all from the Yukon to Melbourne, from Winnipeg to Calcutta.

INDIFFERENCE AND IGNORANCE.

"I have had the good fortune to travel all over the empire; and in the overseas parts I have never been led to meet with anything like real loyalty to the flag. (Renewed cheering). Loving my native country very dearly, and the empire, because the whole is greater than the part, still more dearly, I would say, that, though I have never met disloyalty to the flag, I have met indifference here and there—that kind of indifference which might possibly lead to something worse than disloyalty some day, or something as bad, because it springs from ignorance and the sort of imagination that arises from ignorance. There is one thing in Canada, I suppose, that in any other part of the empire—certainly less than in the old country (cheer, cheer)—and that is perfectly natural. Pocket and stomach poverty make for poverty of understanding, and you are blessed with very little of either. (Hear, hear). But that fact, gentlemen, ought to make you more tolerant, and the more patient. (Hear, hear). There was an Australian poet—a man whom I knew and loved—who said that the spite of the evanescence of life, 'Two things stand like stone-kindness in another's trouble, courage and love.' I believe that I believe that every Canadian recognizes—that, while the future of this country, under any circumstance must be a great one, yet under no other circumstance could it be so glorious as the future of the greatest of the great independent nations within the British empire. (Cheers).

PLEA FOR PATIENCE.

"With regard to Canada's attitude to the mother country, as apart from the empire, my plea would be for patience. If it be true that there was never any greater need than now for mutual forbearance and patience—the highest type of patriotism—there also never was since our race began, a time at which we were closer to the greatest possible reward of patience. Never has the issue been so momentous; never has so large and rapidly growing a party in the old country been working for the empire's common good; never, since the flag first won its colors from the blue sea and from the blood and tears of our forebears—never has there been so good a reason as we have now for the concentration of every sort of loyal effort upon a task of enlarging and strengthening, in every honorable way, the tie of practical good sense, of brotherly love, and of the loyal fellow-citizenship, which unites us all under the Union Jack flag—under the million strong and the greatest power for good the world has ever seen. The establishment of the empire, however, and each reform as we have been able to reach so far in the matter of postal regulations, are no more than the most necessary steps, indicating a way which is being taken by a momentously increasing number of the leaders of thought and action in England."

Mr. Dawson concluded by defending his brother writers and sell from a charge that their impressions of this country would be superficial. He said that they were all men who earned their living as writers. He himself had earned his living since the age of 14 and had known actual poverty and poverty. They were plain men trying to produce the full truth without exaggeration of the things they had seen and of the things any country that needed to achieve anything like the results of the old country, you would find yourself 'up against' a great wall of vested interests. (Laughter).

Faith in the Clergy.
The highlander's faith in the clergy has always been peculiarly profound. This characteristic is illustrated, though in rather an exaggerated way, by the story of two old women going along the road after service who were heard to discuss the sermon as follows:

Peggy—Ah, and did you hear that most precious word, Kiersey—a most precious word?

Kiersey—No. And what word was that?

Peggy—Oh, a most precious word, and it's myself that will not forget it, the precious word Soloh-shalzerre.

Kiersey—Oh, yes. But did you hear that other most beautiful word? Myself never heard it until before, the beautiful word Belshazzar.
